

THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY . . . NOVEMBER 11, 1859.

The city was enveloped in a dense early fog yesterday.

Recapitulation.—Only five notwatches were so宇宙 as to stand at Major's bar yesterday—a small day's work.

Criminal Court.—The trial of J. W. and R. C. Pendleton, indicted for burglary, will commence at the Criminal Court this morning.

Browsing.—The fog at the rear of the hotel house is still hanging pretty thickly, the smoke is scattered to the neighborhood.

Concert.—W. H. Moore, Z. M. Mason, and the Rioters' Court yesterday with carrying a concealed weapon. He had to pay eleven dollars for his infringement of the law.

Transfers.—Were referred to Mr. F. Haynes, of the steamboat Duckie, for very late St. Louis papers; also to A. Byers, of the Hawk, and to Williams & Co.

Hotel.—No. 10, Adams, where I have had a file of news from the Charlot depot safe, to stand at Major's location, is a splendid one for a hotel and there is not a single one in that part of the city.

Recovered.—Mr. T. C. Richards, who was injured at the fall by his horse in the tournament, is to be recovered as he is able to get a daily walk and will be in fulloplans of.

The Recitation.—Last night the fat, pale-faced, white-woman, and four negroes; there were twelve men on the chain and two or three more who were awaiting trial.

An Orphan.—A young orphan, belonging to the kind gentleman, Mr. Charles, and three days ago, inflicting three or four wounds in the back, which are likely to prove fatal, judging by the condition of his health.

Accused.—The Criminal Court was occupied yesterday with the case of Mary Oates, charged with robbery at the Worsell House. The case was after investigation sent to the jury who immediately returned a verdict of guilty.

Promised.—Samuel C. Mitchell, yesterday sold a fourth part of his estate, at 111 cents. A portion of it took the premium at Jackie's Field. It was from the plantations of W. S. Stevens, of Grenada, Miss., and W. Cannon, of Madison county, Tennessee.

MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE.—We have omitted to state that Geo. P. & Co. have of their countrymen such men as Dr. Merriam's Magazine, a most useful repository of commercial information, which can not fail to be welcome.

Stamps.—Street bazaar are quite numerous, especially at the corners of the city. They are invariably foreign, and almost always persons who like to live without work. Individuals in real distress are rarely found giving from door to door with a professional white.

The Tribune.—Under this heading we shall have a column of news from the Tribune of St. Louis with some notes referring to their advertisement. They have a splendid staff and a few class star company, with trick pen names and other powerful attractions. We are sure that crowds will welcome them during their visit.

Judgments.—When the Gladiator was lying at Cairo, Monday last, a gentleman on board was induced to play at cards with a couple of sharpers, and was dealt a black diamond that he laid down a hundred dollars to get. Friends and family were unable to make him give up his victim, and the rascals suddenly grabbed the money and darted off shore, and so effectually concealed himself that he could not be found.

Offer.—SAFETY.—We invite attention to the advertisement of VINCENT BACHARACH, better known by the former name, on the part of Washington's Friend and Front Row. This Safety is a great improvement over the New York model, and is made of a superior material, and then the Macines who officiates makes it a point to say that her pictures are all attended to. We recommend the place to country and the friends.

In Quest of Place.—An unfortunate individual, with a face of gloom and a voice of woe, applied to Esq. Hayes yesterday to ease his trouble. His grief all stem from marriage. His wife was a virgin, and the daughter of an eminent physician, and he had no son. His wife's parents are dead, and the rascals frequently made fun of him.

Kaufmann.—A young man, who is engaged in the advertising of Uglyville Wolfe, to-day's paper.

Hyde's.—Gentlemen, please notice that we have now a new and improved style of GRIPPING AND EGREGARIOUS SCREW WRENCH.

Patented March 13th and October 24, 1855.
